PART 1

General Information

The Family Law Act 1975 allows an eligible person to request the Trustees to provide certain information about a Member's superannuation account. An eligible person is a Member of the Military Superannuation and Benefits Scheme (MilitarySuper); or the spouse of a Member of that scheme; or a person who intends to enter into a superannuation agreement with a Member of MilitarySuper.

If you are requesting information about yourself and your spouse (that is, you are both Members), you will need to complete a separate application and declaration to obtain your spouse's information.

For the purposes of the Family Law Act 1975 spouse means:

- a party to a marriage or
